Minutes from the July 5 Meeting

There were 20 in attendance, including one guest. Maria led the meeting and Wally offered the prayer. A guest, Delanya Miller, was introduced by Larry Makoben

A signup sheet was passed around for a Muscatine interclub on the 26th.

Steve Grimes reported on our July service project. The club provided service as marshals in the Bettendorf 4th of July parade. Approximately 8 club member served, along with others from the community.

Our August project will be to help with the Kiwanis District Convention silent auction. The convention is August 5th. Maria, Jim and Kristin are our convention representatives. A golf outing is taking place August 4th.

A picture was shared from the Habitat for Humanity house that was recently dedicated.

Friday, August 19th a best-ball golf tournament will take place in Clinton.

Our club board has reviewed our finances and is recommending an increase in dues to $95 per quarter.

Mike provided information on a July 19th social lunch, followed by a golf outing.

Club members were advised to notify Bev about the time spent in serving at the Bettendorf 4th of July parade.

Program Chair for July: Missy Knott

July 12 - Tim McKinnon, Hy-Vee/YMCA Iron Kids Triathlon

July 19—Meet at Palmer Hills Grill at 11:30 a.m.

July 26—Zach Klipsch, Executive Director at Camp Abe Lincoln

Program Chair for August: Dan Adams

We need volunteers to help with the District Convention! Our job is to man the silent auction table. Please consider serving for a couple of hours. Contact Chad if you would like to volunteer.

Chad can be reached at raesidec@genesishealth.com.

Write it in your heart that everyday is the best day of the year.
