Minutes from the July 6 Meeting

JR called the meeting to order. Wally offered the invocation. 22 were in attendance.

We had one guest, David O'Connell.

The parade was great. After the incident in Bellevue, it emphasizes the importance of parade marshals and safety.

An inter club will be scheduled soon.

Movies in the Park will be held on July 17. The movie is "Cloudy with a Change of Meatballs". The original date was rained out.

JR told the group about his Honor Flight experience. There were 105 vets who were able to go on the 2-day trip. Modern Woodman was the sponsor. All the vets were over the age of 80. It was very hot in Washington but the trip went on without any incidents. They visited all the attractions. There were 6 vets on the trip that were in the battles of Iwo Jima. JR explained more about the battles on that tiny island and the significance that it had in the outcome of the war. JR said it was a great trip.

Maria gave a financial report. A copy of her report is on page 2.

Next week's speaker will be Kevin Kellums from the Family Enrichment Center.
