Minutes from the May 11 Meeting

JR Stradt called the meeting to order. Eric Engstrom offered the invocation.

Happy thoughts
Maria and Mike both have birthdays on May 12.

JR reported the dinner honoring Moline Club's 90th was very nice. When their club began 90 years ago, they had 100 people sign up immediately. Jim and Tom said the golf outing was a lot of fun too.

Those who attended the Salvation Army lunch on Monday thought that it was very good program.

The May service project will be next Saturday, May 15, at 8:30 am at Kiwanis Park. The club will assemble a tot swing. The June service project will be passing out flags at movies in the park. The date is June 5. The movie is "Where the Wild Things Are".

Eric is looking for attendance at an interclub at Davenport North Side. They meet at 7am.

The club will again host a special "membership round-up day" on Tuesday June 22nd. Jim Tiedje requests that you provide him with names of possible guests to invite to this meeting or to a future meeting should the invitee be unable to attend on that day. An invitation letter will be sent to the prospects by Jim approximately two weeks ahead of the round-up day. Jim will be creating/adding to the prospect list with contact information, including the name of the member who is inviting. Any contact information you can provide, including phone numbers, business, e-mail address would be most helpful. Question? Call Jim at 743-7746.

JR said that the Kiwanis scholarships will be awarded to Jackson Hemberger and Erika Vigen. Neither were able to attend today.

Dave Nichols passed out copies of a power point presentation about Key Club. They have many service projects during the year. Several Kiwanis members have children who have been involved in Key Club. The Key Club Leadership Scholarship goes to Alexis Bushman. Alexis was present at the meeting and spoke. She said she plans on attending the University of Iowa in the premed program. She has enjoyed her involvement in Key Club. She has been a member since her sophomore year. JR and Dave presented her with a check for $500.
