Minutes from the September 7 Meeting

There were 14 members in attendance. JR led the meeting. Wally offered the prayer.

Next week Tom will have a sign-up sheet for Peanut Day which is Sept 24 & 25. Locations will be Wal-Mart, Hy-Vee and K&K.

Next week's meeting will be an organization meeting to make plans for next year. The 28th will be installation of officers. George cannot be our treasurer. If anyone is interested please contact Jim.

Birthdays this week are for Tim Black and Marnie McDanel.

Marie discussed Service Projects for the coming year. She asked the group what day of the week and what time worked best. Some thought that spring and summer were hard to commit to a Saturday. She also asked what kind of projects people were interested in. Some well attended projects in the past have been:

- Serving at Café on Vine
- Feed the Hungry bags
- Parade marshals

Some suggestions:

- Painting at Café on Vine
- Habitat for Humanity
- Being able to bring a spouse or child
- Combine with a social hour
- 2 hour or less time frame

Maria asked if others would assist her on the committee. She'd like at least a couple of people to help.

JR encouraged everyone to attend next week's meeting and to get involved in the club. Janet asked if a list of committees and responsibilities could be sent out.

JR noted that the most important activity in keeping the club active is to bring in new members. There will be two membership days in the coming year, one in October and one in March.

Eric said that he would have an interclub possibly to Rock Island.

Happy Thoughts

Jim attended the 23rd Father Martin Golf Outing where $18,000 was raised. And JR went to a wedding in Wisconsin.

Chad R won $2 in the raffle. Eric drew a black marble.

Steve reminded everyone that dining books are still available.

Maria passed out the financial report for the month.
