Minutes from the November 30 Meeting

We had 17 members in attendance plus our speaker. Jim let the meeting. Wally prayed.

JR announced that this week was his birthday. He gave everyone a very cool calendar pen. Janet said that she and her husband will be celebrating their 36th anniversary. Gary's daughter got engaged.

Next week we will induct our two new members, Heather and David.

Since we will not have time at the Christmas party to have a gift exchange, we will have a white elephant gift exchange at the December 28th meeting. Gifts will have a $10 limit.

We collected $39 for Christmas baskets.

A program chair for July is still needed.

Eric said that 10 members are signed up for the Davenport Tom & Jerry party. It will be held on December 16. Anyone not signed up but would like to attend should see Eric.

The club's Christmas party is December 9, at The Grape Life. The cost is $10 per person. Make reservations with Mike.

Steve said we still have about 30 dining club books to sell.

Steve introduced the speaker: Ray Shovlain, St. Ambrose University Athletic Director. Ray also teaches finance. He passed out material he uses for a leadership class called "From the Coach's Corner, The Other Ten Commandments". He pointed out one of his favorites: The best possible job is the one you have right now. He said that people need to give their very best every day and not concentrate on the future but on the present.

Ray went on to say that SAU has 750 athletes and 22 athletic programs. All SAU athletes go through a leadership academy.
