Minutes from the March 22 Meeting

There were 17 in attendance plus four guests/speakers and 1 potential new member. Jim led the meeting and Wally offered the prayer.

Wally, Heather and Missy have been brainstorming about this year's rose sales. The cost is $16 per dozen. Checks are to be made out to Bettendorf Kiwanis. Distribution will be on April 27, which is Administrative Professional's Day. Missy has created a Facebook page for rose sales. Heather has put an announcement on the Women's Connection weekly email. Orders need to be in by April 12. Wally reminded everyone to make sure everyone marks the correct pick up location on the stub.

JR introduced Jan Carpenter from MidAmerican Energy who is interested in joining the club. Bill and his wife are celebrating their 38th anniversary this week.

Jim passed out thank you notes from Christian Care, Café on Vine and the Scott County Family Y.

Jim passed around the basket to collect money to cover our costs of the service project on April 2, Kids Against Hunger. It looks like 5-6 other clubs will join us. We have one team signed up so far. If we collect enough money we can send another team.

Eric said that he, Heather, Chad and Jim had an interclub to Rock Island on Monday. In April he plans an interclub to Camanche.

Janet introduced our presenters, a four-man group from the local Cordbusters who call themselves "A Touch of Fun" quartet. They performed several songs for us. The Cordbusters raise money with performances and give back to the community. This quartet has been singing together for over 20 years. On Valentine's Day they will do singing telegrams.
